

The diagram shows a horizontal rectangular layout divided into four equal-width sections by three vertical lines. The outermost sections are light blue, and the inner two sections are light green. A horizontal line with arrows at both ends runs across the middle. Text labels are placed in the center of each section, with arrows pointing to the corresponding lines. The top section is labeled 'RED LINE IS THE CUT LINE' with arrows pointing to the top edges. The middle section is labeled 'BLUE LINE IS THE SAFETY LINE' with an arrow pointing to the horizontal line. The bottom sections are labeled 'GREEN LINES ARE THE FOLD LINES' with arrows pointing to the vertical lines. Dimensions are provided in the center of the layout.
